STORY NOTES: JIGGLER

The Jiggler
3/20/09

ACT ONE

1. Jake and Finn are celebrating their last adventure by whistling.
2. Their whistling attracts a Jiggler (a wiggling, whistling creature).
3. Finn and Jake really dig the Jiggler's whistling and jiggly dance.
4. Jake and Finn think it would be awesome to hang out with him all the time.
5. Using their grape fudgies, they lure him back to their treehouse.
6. Jake and Finn are psyched to have a new roommate.

ACT TWO – Finn and Jake learn to take care of the jiggler.

7. The Jiggler stops wiggling and jiggling and starts moaning (or some other noise of distress). Jake and Finn freak out – they don't know what's wrong . Maybe it's hungry?
8. Finn and Jake grab humburger, but can't figure out which of the Jiggler's holes is his mouth. Thy stick hamburger in every hole they can find….until the Jiggler stops moaning.
9. Jake points out that maybe they don't know how to take care of a jiggler, Maybe they should give up. Finn yells "NEVER!"

hard to picture?

10. Finn's yelling makes the Jiggler go crazy, running and knocking stuff off the walls. Finn yells at the Jiggler to "STOP IT!" which only aggravates the jiggler more.
11. Jake breaks out his viola to" sooth the beast". It seems to work at first. For a moment the Jiggler stops and begins swaying to the music. Finn is about to congratulate Jake when the Jiggler starts violently barfing up strawberry smoothie everywhere (at least they know where his mouth is now.) (or do they?)
12. When the Jiggler is done barfing, he turns a different color. Panicked, Finn and Jake try various things to get him back to normal: hugs, whistling and jiggling, Jake tries stretching into weird shapes. Finn tries to appease the Jiggler with presents. He gives the Jiggler his ~~hat~~, his, shirt, pants and backpack and is soon standing around in his underwear. Jake is uncomfortable and asks Finn to get dressed again.

ADVENTURE TIME
THE JIGGLER
3/25/09

ACT ONE

1. FINN and JAKE are celebrating their latest successful conquest by whistling.
2. Their whistling attracts a JIGGLER (a whistling, jiggling creature with many holes covering his body).
3. Finn and Jake really dig the Jiggler's whistling and jiggly dance.
4. Finn and Jake think it would be awesome to whistle and jiggle with him all the time.
5. They lure him back to their tree house, using grape fudgies.
6. Finn and Jake put a collar on the Jiggler and set up a little bed for him. All three whistle and jiggle all night long.

ACT TWO

Rob

BABY STUFF

7. Finn and Jake are having the time of their lives, whistling and jiggling until… it just stops. Finn and Jake say, "c'mon Jiggler, let's jiggle some more!" They jiggle around it, trying to move its arms, but it's no use.
8. Finn and Jake are confused. ~~What's wrong with the Jiggler? Why isn't he jiggling~~? JAKE: "That's weird." FINN: "Maybe the Jiggler's hungry. After all, you need fuel to keep up that crazy jiggling! And I'm starving. Let's eat!"
9. Finn and Jake go through their cabinets and pull out hamburger. Everybody likes hamburger! Finn stuffs the food in the Jiggler's mouth and he screams. Finn feels terrible. He just hurt the Jiggler! As he's apologizing, Jake points out that the Jiggler has many holes, and Finn could have just shoved hamburger in his ear. Finn and Jake gingerly try all the different holes, trying to find his mouth hole. They can't find it.
10. Finally the Jiggler eats a nearby photo of food and stuffs it in a brand new, hidden hole. Finn and Jake rejoice. Now they know where his mouth is, and what he likes to eat. The Jiggler likes to eat PICTURES of food.
11. Finn feeds the Jiggler tons of photographs of food. When he runs out of those, Finn starts drawing pictures of food and stuffing them in the Jiggler's mouth. The Jiggler eats all the food, and burps. He's full. Finn and Jake wait, expectantly. He's going to start jiggling and whistling again any second… except he doesn't.
